

Barney Bigman

Mr. Barney Bigman is employed by the San Carlos Apache Tribal Economic Development Department, as Tribal Transportation Planner.

Mr. Bigman has a Masters in Liberal Studies from the School of Liberal Arts and Sciences of Arizona State University. His thesis in obtaining his degree was in Native American Economic Development researching four Arizona Indian Tribes. He received his undergraduate degree in Business, with a minor in Management, and also has an Advanced Certificate in Land Surveying and Water Resources from New Mexico State University.

Previously employed with the Arizona Department of Transportation as a Planner in State Tribal and Regional planning, Mr. Bigman has over 20 years of Engineering Technology experience. Employed over 6 years with Maricopa County Public Works Department as an Engineering Associate, he also managed the construction of various HUD home sites with the San Carlos and Gila River Indian Community Housing.

Over the years, Barney facilitated numerous management activities on a variety of civil engineering related matters. In the past eight years, he has been very active with professional organizations, such as; the American Society of Civil Engineers, Arizona Society of Civil Engineers, Arizona Professional Surveyors Association, Western Federation of Professional Surveyors, Arizona Managers Association, and the National CAD Society.