

Floyd Roehrich, Jr.

Floyd Roehrich has been named as Acting State Engineer in June, 2008. He has over 24 years of engineering experience with more that 16 years at ADOT. He has worked in Roadway Engineering Group, Statewide Project Management Group, Valley Project Management. He was appointed Deputy State Engineer for Valley Transportation in December of 2007.

A graduate from North Dakota State University with a Bachelor's Degree in Civil Engineering, Floyd work for the North Dakota Highway Department for over four years before coming to ADOT. In 2004, he went to work for a consulting firm, returning to ADOT in 2006.