

John S. Halikowski

Governor Jan Brewer appointed John as Interim Director of the Department of Transportation on February 16, 2009. Prior to his appointment he served for 12 years as the Director of Research at the Arizona House of Representatives. He also previously spent six years at ADOT serving in various capacities including MVD Deputy Director and Operations Chief. John received his Bachelor of Arts Degree in Communications and graduated summa cum laude, from Arizona State University.