

Ken Petty

Ken currently serves as the Associate Team Leader for the Transportation Planning Capacity Building Team within the FHWA, Office of Planning. Ken brings to his role at the FHWA a wide range of transportation planning and finance experience providing training and technical assistance to States, Metropolitan Planning Organizations, local governments, tribal governments, and other key interest groups. For the last 12 years, he has worked for the USDOT serving in various capacities in support of FHWA goals and initiatives. Ken has been with the Office of Planning since 2002. Among his current duties, Ken is responsible for working with Tribal governments through the FHWA, Transportation Planning Capacity Building Program; manage and support grant and research programs for the Office of Planning, Environment, and Reality, and provides technical assistance to recipients of Federal funds on fund eligibility.